Madrid

The Museo del Prado is the main Spanish national art museum, located in central Madrid. It features one of the world's finest collections of European art, from the 12th century to the early 19th century, based on the former Spanish Royal Collection, and unquestionably the best single collection of Spanish art. Founded as a museum of paintings and sculpture, it also contains important collections of other types of works.

Retiro Park. Retiro Park is a popular and magnificent place for a stroll. Home to several sculptures, monuments, and a boating lake

Barcelona

5/9 Sagrada Familia to describing Sagrada Familia, art Critic Rainer Zerbst said "it is probably impossible to find a church building anything like it in the entire history of art and Paul Goldberger called it 'the most extraordinary personal interpretation of Gothic architecture since the Middle Ages'.

Poble Espanyol (also called as Spanish Village). Poble Espanyol has different quarters that replicate the style of houses and architecture from different parts of Spain. It's also home to a whole host of specialist craft shops and workshops where you can see some traditionally made Spanish goods.
